

Employee benefits

Hours of work

The full-time hours of work are 37.5 per week (40 for doctors), but many employees of the hospice work a range of flexible working patterns according to the needs of the role and department.

Flexible working

We recognise that by promoting flexible working practices, we can retain valued employees and create a culture that promotes diversity and a healthy work/life blend.

Annual leave

27 days per annum on appointment, rising to 29 days after 5 years' service and 33 days after 10 years' service, pro-rata for those working part-time hours. Previous service with the NHS is taken into account when calculating annual leave entitlements if you move to the hospice direct from the NHS. Bank Holidays are in addition, pro rata for part time staff.

Salary

Payment is directly into your bank account on the 25th of every month. December's payment is usually made earlier. Please be advised that the hospice has its own pay bands which are different to NHS pay bands.

Special leave

The hospice recognises that at certain times in all employee's lives, time off from work is necessary due to a variety of reasons. We therefore have a generous special leave offering which goes beyond statutory requirements. This includes enhanced compassionate leave and enhanced parental and bereavement leave.

Pension schemes

Automatic enrolment. Due to changes in pension legislation, with effect from 1 July 2014 (providing you are eligible), you will be automatically enrolled into the Birmingham Hospice pension scheme. Whilst enrolment is automatic, should you not wish to be a member of the pension, you may subsequently opt out.

The employee contribution is 2.07% and the employer contribution is 5.93%. Staff will receive some tax relief on the contributions.

Members who cannot apply for the NHS pension scheme but wish to enrol on our company pension scheme (Royal London), the first deduction is made three months after your start date. Employees are sent a welcome pack direct from the pension provider. The employee contribution is 2.07% and the employer contribution is 5.93%.

NHS - Provided you meet the qualification criteria set out by NHS Pensions, people in a clinical role who currently contribute to the NHS Pension Scheme will be eligible to apply to continue these contributions.

Please note Birmingham Hospice is a direction employer of NHS Pension and consequently there may be some differences in benefits. Further information is available in the scheme guide published by NHS Pensions Agency, which is available on www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/pensions. The NHS pension scheme is a qualifying scheme for auto enrolment purposes.

Payment during sickness

Payment for periods of absence due to authorised sickness will be made in accordance with the current statutory sick pay scheme. In addition, the charity operates a charity sick pay scheme as follows:

Entitlement to OSP increases with service as follows:

- During the first year of service – one months' full pay and two months of half pay
- During the second year of service - two months full pay and two months half pay
- During the third year of service – four months full pay and four months half pay
- During the fourth and fifth year of service – five months full pay and five months half pay

Learning and development

The hospice is committed to the continued training and development of its staff, and you will be supported in undertaking this when it is essential to your role or personal development, identified through the appraisal process in line with our Learning and Development Policy. All staff will have an annual appraisal with their line manager. If you are a manager at the hospice, you will receive management development through a variety of means which includes access to operational coaching.

Birmingham Hospital Saturday Fund (BHSF)
