- Work closely with Education Team as part of Education Steering group
- Design and deliver work experience programme
- Provide advice and support to managers in cases of organisational change
- Advise managers in the effective management of attendance, including advice on management of short-term absence and providing full support to staff with long term illnesses. Liaise with the Occupational Health team as required, ensuring they work in line with our SLA
- Produce high quality reports on a range of People metrics to a range of internal and external stakeholders including the Board of Trustees, People Committee, the Leadership team and the CCG.
- Facilitate mediation meetings as and when required
- Support recruitment processes as and when needed.

Strategic

- Participate in the development of a People Strategy for the Hospice and take responsibility for implementing agreed elements of this
- Contribute to the development and continual improvement of the People Department.
- Support with wider Hospice initiatives such as Wellbeing, Engagement and Diversity

Administrative

- Undertake initial investigation of complaints on behalf of the People Team Manager as needed.
- Undertake project work that is relevant to the department.

Communication

- Ensures a high standard of customer service is delivered to all stakeholders

Personal

- To agree objectives and a personal development plan in order to ensure that a broad range of competence is developed and demonstrated

General Duties

Confidentiality

- All employees are required to uphold the confidentiality of all information records in whatever format, encountered in the course of employment and after it.
- All employees are bound by the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations when, in the course of their employment, they deal with information records relating to individuals

Equality and Diversity

- The Hospice is committed to promoting an environment that values diversity. All staff are responsible for ensuring that they treat individuals equally and fairly and do not discriminate on the grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. The Hospice expects all staff to behave in a way which recognises and respects diversity in line with the appropriate standards.

Health and Safety

- All employees have a responsibility under the terms of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 to protect and promote their own health and that of others in the workplace
- All employees must comply with all Hospice Health and Safety Procedures

Infection Control

- The prevention and control of infection is the responsibility of everyone who is employed by the Hospice. Employees must be aware of infection control policies, procedures and the importance of protecting themselves and their clients in maintaining a clean and healthy environment.

Information Governance

- All employees are responsible for ensuring they undertake any training relating to information governance, read the Hospice's policies, procedures and guidance documents relating to information governance, and that they understand how this affects them in their role.

Professional Development

- All employees must participate in an annual appraisal and develop personal development plan with line manager
- All employees must maintain their statutory and mandatory training.

Safeguarding Children, Young People and Vulnerable Adults

- The Hospice is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults. All employees and volunteers are therefore expected to behave in such a way that supports this commitment.
